CUBAN REVOLUTIONISTS. NEW YORK, April 17.—The New York Cuban revolutionary party was organized last evening at Hamilton hall, Fifth avenue and Ninth street. The avowed purpose of the new party is to uphold the movement for independence and a lasting republican form of government. While, of course, no open declaration was made that it was contemplated to start a revolution, the expedition to Cuba in the near future, that idea was clearly made evident in the statements that plenty of money had been collected to send men, ammunition and arms the moment it should be decided that extreme measures were the only resort. The secretary of the meeting stated that a revolution was unavoidable. The dispatches stating that preparations looking to this had been commenced at Tampa and Key West, the secretary stated were both without foundation. The Cubans in this city believe that, once in possession of the island, they can put it on a good war footing in ten years.

The British Vessels Selected to Take Part in the Annual Naval Review Arrive at Hampton Roads—The Excess of Imports Over Exports for March—Nomination Unacted Upon by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Secretary Carlisle absolutely declined this morning to outline his future financial action. He prefers to await the arrival of the emergency before indicating what he will do.

On Saturday the legality of setting aside $15,000 of the territorial funds by the territorial treasurer for world's fair purposes was being argued before the supreme court. Harper S. Cunningham represented the governor and Attorney General Charles Brown the territory. The governor had a mandamus issued on the treasurer to set aside said funds, it being the amount appropriated by the last legislature for the purpose.

At the present writing the people, prophets and politicians of Oklahoma, are all at sea so far as the appointment of governor of Oklahoma are concerned. The interested parties are all "at court" (Washington).

CAPITAL NOTES.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—The treaty between the governments of the United States and Ecuador, by which the United States is given the right to acquire a coaling station on one of the Galapagos Islands, failed of ratification by the senate because of the pressure of other business. The treaty does not become void by the failure of the senate to ratify it, and it will be taken up at a later day.

When the senate adjourned on Saturday there remained upon the executive calendar a number of nominations that were inserted upon it as it was thought that there was only one, but a careful examination of the calendar shows six more nominations that failed to reach the senate. The adjournment of the senate, however, has nothing to prevent the president's appointing them again during the recess.

There were no new developments today with regard to the Russian extradition treaty.

Secretary Graham had an extended conference with the president today. Hawaiian affairs and the Chilean refugee question are understood to have been the topics under consideration.

At the opening of the supreme court of the United States today Chief Justice Fuller announced that on the 20th inst. the cut of the docket would be completed. The course will be taken for the purpose of enabling the court to arrange for its trip to the opening of the world's fair at Chicago on day.

The bureau of statistics in its statement of foreign commerce for March, 1893, shows the excess of imports over exports to be as follows: For the month ending March 31, $1,000,000; for the three months ending March 31, $1,000,000; and for the twelve months ending March 31, $1,000,000.

THE ENGLISH DOCK LABORERS. LONDON, April 17.—At a meeting today of the ship-owners of London and provincial ports, the subject of the strike of the dock laborers at Hull, the notice given by the dock laborers' union at Liverpool, to the effect that unless the demands of the workmen are complied with a strike would be inaugurated, was discussed.

The result of the agitation in favor of the shipping interests, was discussed. The ship-owners at the meetings resolved to fight against the action of the dock laborers, and to support the action of the union workmen, whether the latter should attempt to enforce their demands by a general strike or by strikes in detail. The agitation regarding the dock laborers continues to increase. Several thousand seamen and firemen gathered today on West Hill, and displayed great enthusiasm and earnestness in support of the Hull strikers. The leading speaker was one Sprouts, who loudly declared that 10,000 men would go on strike tomorrow as a protest against the treatment of his comrades at Hull. The statement was loudly cheered. Some fear is expressed of a national strike in case of a refusal of the demands of the Hull strikers, and as a protest against the action of other workers in antagonizing the cause.
